National Service Day Feed and Blanket the Homeless

Monday, January 18th, 2010

Arlington Street Church will partner with Volunteers of America to make and distribute bag lunches for our homeless neighbors in and around the surrounding area. This year we hope to surpass the 500 bag lunch total we were able to distribute last year. In addition to lunches, we will distribute granola bars and fleece blankets.

If you are unable to volunteer, please consider sponsoring a blanket for $10 or making a contribution towards food purchases.

Look for a donation bucket in the Parish Hall during Coffee Hour.

Women's Spirituality Group

A lively multi-generational group of sixteen Arlington Street Church women met in retreat during November, and enjoyed being together so much that they've decided to continue meeting monthly as the Second Saturday Soul Sistahs. Our next gathering of the Sistahs will be on Saturday, January 9th, from 10:00 AM until 2:00 PM in the Perkins Room. Beginning with the January meeting, we'll use a Unitarian Universalist curriculum, Evensong, to help shape our gatherings, deepening our conversations and connecting our souls. If you can, please bring a potluck lunch item for sharing or your own brown bag lunch. RSVP to wsg@ascboston.org, subject: Sistahs.

The Sistahs will continue meeting on the second Saturday of each month, so calendar these dates now if you plan to attend: January 9th, February 13th, March 13th, April 10th, May 8th, and June 12th. We ask for a commitment to attend regularly.

All Arlington Street Church women of any age are very welcome to join us for the January gathering, and after that, the group will be closed to new members until after the June meeting.

If you have any questions, please be in touch with Acting Associate Minister Yvonne Schumacher Strejcek or Linda Evans, both of whom can be reached at wsg@ascboston.org.

Spiritual Passions 2010! ~ January

Let's gather on a winter Sunday afternoon from 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM for these wonderful offerings of our spiritual passions! All are welcome!

Meditation 101: Introduction to Meditation

Rev. Kim K. Crawford Harvie, Senior Minister
Sunday, January 3rd ~ 1:00–3:00 PM

Don't just do something; sit there! And when you sit, just sit. Very simple directives ... simple, but not easy! Join Arlington Street Church's senior minister, Rev. Kim K. Crawford Harvie, and members of Arlington Street Zen Center for Meditation 101, including answers to burning questions such as, "Where do I put my legs?" and "How do I quiet my mind without going to sleep?" This ancient spiritual practice will bring profound benefits not just to you, but to all whose life yours touches. Wear comfortable clothing (and yes, you can meditate in a chair!).

Money, Spirituality, and Emotions: Gaining Peace with Money Issues

Rev. Yvonne Schumacher Strejcek
Sunday, January 17th ~ 1:00–3:00 PM

Some say the remaining conversational taboo is no longer politics, or religion, or sexuality, but rather money. Let's unpack that, together. This interactive workshop gives us an opportunity to explore our thoughts and feelings about money and finances, where they came from, and how they impact our spiritual wellbeing.

Spirituality and Architecture

Seanan Holland, Intern Minister
Sunday, January 31st ~ 1:00–3:00 PM

How well have we created our cities and towns? Do they serve our human condition well? If our cities are a monument to god, then what is that god like? Bring your imaginations to explore possibilities for the future. Our intern minister, Seanan, will lead a visual exploration of spiritual expression in human (and non-human) dwellings.

2010 Spiritual Passions! ~ February

Writing from Real Life: The Spiritual Passion of Judah Leblang

Judah Leblang
Sunday, February 7th ~ 1:00–3:00 PM

We all carry stories — true life events, shaped by memory and our life experiences — within us. In this workshop, we'll discuss what makes a compelling personal story or memoir vignette and then do a few exercises to practice the writing process. You'll come out of the workshop with a draft of a short memoir piece, and ideas for improving/developing your writing.

Judah Leblang grew up in Cleveland, Ohio. His essays and commentaries have been broadcast on National Public Radio stations around the US, and published in various newspapers and magazines in Boston and Cleveland. His column, "Life in the Slow Lane," appears regularly in Bay Windows, a Boston-area weekly newspaper. His book, Finding My Place: One Man's Journey from Cleveland to Boston and Beyond has just been published.

Arlington Street Zen Center Retreat

Rev. Kim K. Crawford Harvie, Senior Minister,
and members of the Arlington Street Zen Center
Sunday, February 7th ~ 1:00–5:00 PM

Don't just do something; sit there! Rev. Kim and Arlington Street Zen Center members invite you to an afternoon meditation retreat. We will be practicing alternate sitting and walking meditation, interspersed with readings from the dharma (Buddhist teachings) – the same format as our twice-monthly gatherings, but over a longer period of time.

If you are experienced in meditation, or interested in a full-immersion introduction, please join us! Wear loose, comfortable clothing, walking shoes, and appropriate outerwear (we will be walking in the Public Garden). Zafus and zabutons (pillows and cushions) as well as chairs are provided. Come for the beginning, and stay as long as you'd like.

At 5:00, we'll celebrate by walking down to Bangkok Blue to enjoy Thai food together! BYO$. All are welcome!
