Bach Solo Cello Suites
Guy Fishman, Artist in Residence

Sunday, January 31st, 11:00 AM, Sanctuary

Cellist Guy Fishman is Arlington Street’s newest addition to our thriving Artist in Residence program! Beginning back in the Fall of 2008 and continuing through this Spring, Guy’s residency features performances of all six of Johann Sebastian Bach’s solo cello suites; his upcoming visit marks the fifth installment. The suites were most likely composed between 1717 and 1723; nearly 300 years later, they continue to be regarded as some of the greatest works ever written for the instrument.

Add More Music to Your Life in the New Year!
Be part of our Arlington Street Church Choir!

Do you love to sing? Would you like to be part of a community of sharing music? Do you want or need to take just a couple hours out of your week to create something beautiful? The Arlington Street Church Choir may be just the place for you! No musical experience necessary!

We find that making music with and for our community here at Arlington Street is a central and beautiful part of our spiritual practice as Unitarian Universalists. We rehearse one night a week and sing Sunday mornings at our weekly services, performing an array of challenging, evocative repertoire spanning dozens of cultures, and centuries of musical and liturgical history.

The choir is open to all interested singers able to make a commitment to the choir’s schedule. Attendance each week is not mandatory, though members find that it’s difficult to function effectively if they miss more than a quarter of the rehearsals. We rehearse on Thursdays from 7:00 – 9:00 pm in the Clarke Room on the second floor of the church. If you have any questions, please always feel free to contact our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles, who is available at the front of the sanctuary following the service or via email at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org.

The Wednesdays: Three Chinese Poets

Wednesdays, January 13th, and 27th, 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Frothingham Library (please note that we do NOT meet on January 20th)

Join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for our latest literary adventure at Arlington Street’s The Wednesdays literary salon: Three Chinese poets!

There’s universal agreement that the golden age of Chinese poetry occurred in the eighth century during the Tang dynasty. We’ll be studying the three best Tang dynasty poets, all of them giants of world literature: Wang Wei, Li Bai (also known as Li Po), and Du Fu (also known as Tu Fu). All three poets are easily accessible and deeply moving, writing largely about simple things in a world of evanescent beauty. Their emotions are understated but powerful, and they’re probably more attuned to nature than any other poets who ever wrote. Our text is The Anchor Book of Chinese Poetry, edited by Tony Barnstone and Chou Ping.

January 13: Li Bai/Li Po

Let’s gather on winter Sunday afternoons from 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM for these wonderful offerings of our spiritual passions! All are welcome!

Money, Spirituality, and Emotions: Gaining Peace with Money Issues

Rev. Yvonne Schumacher Strejcek
Sunday, January 17th ~ 1:00–3:00 PM

Some say the remaining conversational taboo is no longer politics, or religion, or sexuality, but rather money. Let's unpack that, together. This interactive workshop gives us an opportunity to explore our thoughts and feelings about money and finances, where they came from, and how they impact our spiritual wellbeing.

Spirituality and Architecture

Seanan Holland, Intern Minister
Sunday, January 31st ~ 1:00–3:00 PM

How well have we created our cities and towns? Do they serve our human condition well? If our cities are a monument to god, then what is that god like? Bring your imaginations to explore possibilities for the future. Our intern minister, Seanan, will lead a visual exploration of spiritual expression in human (and non-human) dwellings.
