

The Wednesdays: Three Chinese Poets

Wednesday, January 27th, 6:00 – 8:00 PM, Frothingham Library

Join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for our latest literary adventure at Arlington Street's The Wednesdays literary salon: Three Chinese poets!

We'll be studying the three best Tang dynasty poets, all of them giants of world literature: Wang Wei, Li Bai (also known as Li Po), and Du Fu (also known as Tu Fu). All three poets are easily accessible and deeply moving, writing largely about simple things in a world of evanescent beauty. Our text is The Anchor Book of Chinese Poetry, edited by Tony Barnstone and Chou Ping. For more information, please visit <http://www.ASCBoston.org>.

Conversation on Ethical Eating

Sunday, January 31st, 12:45 – 3:00 PM, Sanctuary

Are you concerned about the way farm animals are raised, housed, and slaughtered? Would you like to learn or teach others about ethical choices non-vegetarians can make? Do you seek out and request fair trade coffee and produce, and know how this benefits farmers and the environment?

Deadline to submit our input and comments regarding the current UU Study Action, "Ethical Eating," is March 1st. Let's begin the conversation now. You may also contact ethicaleating@ascboston.org with ideas and contributions to this discussion or visit the Ethical Eating info-table in the Parish Hall on Jan 17th.

Children's Religious Education

Today, join Erick DuPree, religious educator, and the Church School as they learn how Arlington Street Church member and Unitarian Universalist minister Rev. James Reeb stood on the side of love, even when it was not popular, by answering Rev. Dr. King's call to march on Selma. This lesson focuses on how children can discover each other's inherent worth and dignity.

Church School is sung out to classes with the Children's Blessing printed in the order of service. All are welcome to join us downstairs in the Perkins Room.

He has been an outspoken advocate for ending the US occupation through numerous public speaking engagements, media appearances, and publications. During his time in the US, he has facilitated dialogue between US and Iraqi decision-makers to ensure a fast and complete US withdrawal from Iraq. Mr. Jarrar leaked and translated the infamous new Iraqi hydrocarbon law, and the US-Iraqi security agreement— SOFA. He is currently a Senior Fellow with Peace Action.

Bring your imaginations to explore possibilities for the future. Our intern minister, Seanan, will lead a visual exploration of spiritual expression in human (and non-human) dwellings.

Thinking about Joining Arlington Street Church?

If you are curious about the benefits and expectations of membership in Arlington Street Church, we offer a brief, informal orientation every first and third Sunday immediately following the Sunday service.

Bring your questions to the Archive Room, and we’ll tell you about The Path to Membership.

A more in-depth class for new members — “So You Want to Be a UU?” — is set for Sunday, January 31st, from 12:45 to 4 PM. Led by our ministers, staff, and lay leaders, the class offers an opportunity to share our spiritual journeys, to learn about Unitarian Universalism and this church, and to deepen engagement in the life of the congregation. Both potential and current members are welcome. RSVP: office@ascboston.org, subject: membership class.
