

MUSIC (Continued)

Add More Music to Your Life This Spring!

Be part of our Arlington Street Church Choir! Do you love to sing? Would you like to be part of a community of sharing music? Do you want or need to take just a couple hours out of your week to create something beautiful? The Arlington Street Church Choir may be just the place for you! No musical experience necessary!

We find that making music with and for our community here at Arlington Street is a central and beautiful part of our spiritual practice as Unitarian Universalists. We rehearse one night a week and sing Sunday mornings at our weekly services, performing an array of challenging, evocative repertoire spanning dozens of cultures, and centuries of musical and liturgical history.

The choir is open to all interested singers able to make a commitment to the choir's schedule. Attendance each week is not mandatory, though members find that it's difficult to function effectively if they miss more than a quarter of the rehearsals. We rehearse on Thursdays from 7:00–9:00 pm in the Clarke Room on the second floor of the church. If you have any questions, please always feel free to contact our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles, who is available at the front of the sanctuary following the service or via email at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org.

If your baby grows restless during worship, please bring him or her to the nursery (located off of the Chapel, through the leather door). Restless toddlers and older children are invited to join the church school program downstairs.

SPIRITUAL PASSIONS 2010 ~ MARCH

The Larger Thought of God*

Sunday, March 14th ~ 1:00–3:00 PM, Chapel

Rev. Yvonne Schumacher Strejcek, Acting Associate Minister

Some Unitarian Universalists don't want to have anything at all to do with any sort of notion of God, but perhaps that rejected notion of God is simply too small. Come explore what you were taught, what you believe now, and some alternative (and empowering) ways of conceiving divinity. Welcome, seekers and skeptics alike!

* The title of this Spiritual Passion comes from hymn #12, "O Life That Maketh All Things New," in our hymnal, Singing the Living Tradition.

We invite you to cut out this calendar and clip it to your refrigerator or bulletin board!

MUSIC

Bach Solo Cello Suites

Sunday, March 21st ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary

Guy Fishman, Artist in Residence

Don't miss cellist Guy Fishman's final performance at Arlington Street Church! Over the last two years, Mr. Fishman has been an Artist in Residence at Arlington Street. His time here has featured performances of all six of Johann Sebastian Bach's solo cello suites, which he will be recording this year. Mr. Fishman's upcoming visit marks the final installment; he will perform Suite No. 6 in Major BWV 1012. Bach's cello suites were most likely composed between 1717 and 1723; nearly 300 years later, they continue to be regarded as some of the greatest works ever written for the instrument.
