Classical music can be a tremendous resource for understanding oneself and others. It's food for our minds, hearts and souls. Inside Out builds bridges to audiences by showing that a connection with music is not so much about knowing (although it's useful to know the historical and cultural context of a piece), it's more about tapping into the emotional essence and universal human experience that's inherent in every work of art, be it music, dance, theatre, film, or visual art. This innovative interdisciplinary approach helps concertgoers access their memories and activate their imaginations so that they can have more moving, meaningful, and personal experiences.

Bach Solo Cello Suites

Guy Fishman, Artist in Residence

Sunday, May 30th ~ 11 AM, Sanctuary

Don't miss cellist Guy Fishman's final performance at Arlington Street Church! Over the last two year, Mr. Fishman has been an Artist in Residence at Arlington Street. His time here has featured performances of all six of Johann Sebastian Bach's solo cello suites, which he will be recording this year. Mr. Fishman's upcoming visit marks the final installment; he will perform Suite No. 6 in Major BWV 1012 on a historical five-stringed cello. Bach's cello suites were most likely composed between 1717 and 1723; nearly 300 years later, they continue to be regarded as some of the greatest works ever written for the instrument.

Add More Music to Your Life!

The choir is open to all interested singers able to make a commitment to the choir's schedule. Attendance each week is not mandatory, though members find that it's difficult to function effectively if they miss more than a quarter of the rehearsals. We rehearse on Thursdays from 7:00–9:00 pm in the Clarke Room on the second floor of the church. If you have any questions, please always feel free to contact our Director of Music, Mark David Buckles, who is available at the front of the sanctuary following the service or via email at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org.

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Parents as Resident Theologians

TODAY: Sunday, May 23rd ~ 1:00 PM, with Rev. Kim

Let us build memories in our children lest they allow treasures to be lost because they have not been given the keys. We live, not by things, but by the meanings of things. It is needful to transmit the passwords from generation to generation. – Antoine de St. Exupéry

What are the “passwords” we want to transmit? What insights can we glean from our own spiritual journeys to accompany our children on theirs? All are welcome! Childcare will be provided.

Kundalini Yoga Class

Wednesdays, ~ 6:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Experience fun exercises and poses, breathing techniques, chanting, meditation, and deep relaxation in this unique class. Moving energy through your body brings positive change and growth. There will be a $10 charge that will go to the church.

The Wednesdays, Arlington Street’s Literary Salon: Haiku

Wednesday’s, May 26th and June 2nd, ~ 6:00 PM, Frothingham Library

Join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for four Wednesdays of haiku, the world’s shortest poetic form and one that has seized the imagination of the West in the past hundred years. An invention of the Japanese of roughly four hundred years ago (though haiku were actually written in Japan a thousand years ago), haiku are now written in languages all over the world. We’ll read lots and lots of haiku, especially by the three acknowledged Japanese masters: Basho, Buson, and Issa. We’ll write haiku of our own. We’ll compare Eastern and Western kinds as well as ancient and modern examples. We’ll analyze them, admire them, enjoy them. They’re like popcorn and pretzels: small and delicious, and once you start, it’s hard to stop. All aboard!

Could there be more fun in spring than reading haiku?

Wow! A lightening bug!

Required text: Haiku, selected and edited by Peter Washington, Everyman’s Library Pocket Poets, Knopf. There are inexpensive copies at ABEBooks.com, but order ASAP!
