The Wednesdays: Death in Five Wednesdays

November 10th and 17th plus December 8th and 15th

6:00-8:00 PM, Frothingham Library

You're welcome to join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for as little or as much as you're able for our next Wednesdays, Arlington Street's literary salon, in which we will explore the world's most perennially fascinating, most mysterious, most frightening to many, most cataclysmic to all, most profoundly important subject in the whole of literature: DEATH. There's not a great writer in world literature who hasn't written about it, and we're reading some of the best.

On November 10th we begin Thomas Mann's brilliant Death in Venice, in which an eminent, lonely German writer sojourning in Venice ignores rumors of an impending plague and chooses instead to remain in the death-haunted city because of his infatuation with the beautiful Tadzio, his memorable angel of death. On November 17th, we move to Antiguan writer Jamaica Kincaid's My Brother, a poignant memoir about her youngest brother Devon's AIDS-related death, in which she explores the nature of love, family ties, and loss.

Come one, come all; come for one, come for all! All are welcome!

Soul Sisters
