Join Arlington Street Church's Easter Festival Choir

This Easter, the Arlington Street Choir will perform Estonian composer Arvo Pärt's breathtaking Berliner Messe, with string orchestra. Pärt's music is often classified as "spiritual minimalism." We are hoping to create a robust festival choir to sing. This is a wonderful and fun opportunity to give service through music for those of you who may not be able to commit to singing with the choir every Thursday night and Sunday morning. We will rehearse for 6 weeks – the five Thursdays in March and Tuesday April 3rd, at 7 PM in the Clarke Room. The rehearsals will be about an hour long, except for the last two, which will be two hours. Please contact Director of Music Mark David Buckles with any questions at MBuckles@ASCBoston.org.

SUGGESTION BOX

The staff and leadership of Arlington Street Church welcome your ideas, comments, and suggestions. If you have a thought to share about what works well or what could be improved, please send a message to Comments@ASCBoston.org. Your message will be received by the Church's administrative assistant so it can find its way to the appropriate people. Please speak your "truths in love" and include your name and contact information so we can follow-up. Thanks! For emergencies, please see "Our Caring Community" to the right.

Patricia Wild: Integrating Lynchburg, 1962

Today ~ 12:45 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

Ten years ago, Patricia Wild asked, "What happened to the African Americans who desegregated my high school in Lynchburg, Virginia in 1962?" That question became a quest; she found Dr. Lynda Woodruff, a college professor, and Reverend Owen Cardwell, a Baptist preacher, and learned history lessons never taught in her segregated high school.

Patricia's book, Way Opens: A Spiritual Journey tracks her journey as, gently guided by Lynda and Owen, her Quaker meeting, and the people she meets along the way, Patricia examines her White privilege.

Come hear Patricia tell this amazing story! Free admission. All are welcome!
