

more moving, meaningful, and personal experiences with classical music.

Inside Out Concerts show that a connection with music is not so much about knowing (although it's useful to know the historical and cultural context of a piece) as about tapping into the emotional essence and universal human experience that's inherent in every work of art, be it music, dance, theatre, film, or visual art.

May's concert will feature Lisa Hennessy, flute; Amanda Hardy, oboe; Rane Moore, clarinet; Ron Hartounian, bassoon; and Eli Epstein, horn and tour guide.

Through Tuesday, May 12th, Beth will be visiting Boston from her home in Gainesville, Florida, and is eager to begin to meet all of us and to secure housing. If you have any housing leads, or you would like a wonderful new housemate, please speak with Rev. Kim. Thank you!

Covenant Renewal: #IamASCBoston

Today ~ 12:30 PM, Parish Hall

We are - every one of us! - the people of the beloved community at Arlington Street. Once a year, we renew our covenant of love and service with one another, and the world. This year's theme is #IamASC! This week and next, our own Christa Lamb will be in the photo booth to snap your head shot for our #IamASC social media campaign. We'll also be filling in the blanks on ASC "Mad Libs" to share a little bit more about who we are. Come on by after the service and be part of the fun!

Arlington Street Circle of Caring

Today and Sunday, May 24th ~ 12:30 PM, Frothingham Library

Are you battling illness, caring for someone who is ill, struggling with isolation or in the process of losing someone you love? Or have you already lost someone, and are you trying to cope with the heartbreak and anger that accompany loss and grief? If you are currently struggling, or have experienced this or any other type of life crisis and would like to share how you made it through, then please join the Caring Circle.

Maureen Peterson is an ASC member who has lost her parents and her best friend to cancer, her Aunt to Alzheimer's and her brother and close friends to AIDS. Her vision of the Circle of Caring is to create a safe space in which to share our stories, discuss what might help, and just be together in support, in healing, in peace and always in love.

The Wednesdays: Arlington Street's Literary Salon Whitman's "Song of Myself"

Wednesdays, May 13th ~ 6:00-8:00 PM, Frothingham Library

Join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim to discuss Walt Whitman's "Song of Myself," one of the masterpieces of world literature.

Whitman was the first American poet who published in free verse, and the first to write in the American vernacular, eschewing words like "swain" and "sward" and employing Americanisms like "duds" and "pal" and "reckon." He said women matter as much as men, black people matter as much as white people, and sex is nothing to be ashamed of but something to be celebrated, and he's refreshingly irreverent, as when he claims that "The scent of these armpits is aroma finer than prayer," the line which caused Oliver Wendell Holmes to throw his copy in the fireplace. Outside the United States, Whitman is recognized as the peer of Shakespeare, Homer, and Dante. Come one and all to find out why!

ARLINGTON
STREET CHURCH
Unitarian Universalist

This book has slightly different titles, but basically you want Leaves of Grass, the Original Edition (Penguin paperback, usually). You'll find many copies for a penny at Amazon & ABEBooks, or for free at the public library. Please be sure to read Song of Myself, sections 42-52; and, if possible, Whitman's own introduction, pages 5-24 (a very difficult read, but well worth it if you have the time).

Covenant Renewal and Friday Night Supper Appreciation Luncheon

Sunday, May 17th ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary and 12:00 PM, Parish Hall

On Covenant Renewal Sunday, members and friends pledge their financial support for the coming church year, which provides almost half of the annual income for our spiritual community and our work in the world. Following worship, once again, in celebration of Covenant Renewal, Friday Night Supper Program's (FNSP) Board of Directors will serve a homemade lunch to thank the congregation for 32 years of support in helping to feed our neighbors who are hungry and homeless. For more information about FNSP, please go to www.fridaynightsupper.org. Thank you for your part in supporting our spiritual home and community!

A Piano Program by Rodger Clinton Vine

Sunday, May 17th - 1:00 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

This half-hour program features the art of song transcription by Stephen Hough, Earl Wild and Mark Hayes.

In the Introduction to his collection of piano transcriptions, Stephen Hough explains: "A song transcription enables a pianist to be both singer and accompanist - a liberating union of wills and skills at the service of some of the loveliest melodies ever written. Vocal lines here can safely soar beyond the range of the human voice, and accompaniments can be fearlessly woven in complex and luxuriant textures of sound, celebrating this percussive instrument's perplexingly persuasive disguise as the most glamorous spinster of singing lines." Selections include Londonderry Air, Over the Rainbow, Hello, Young Lovers, Ode to Joy, and others. All are welcome!

"...and Service is Our Gift"

Now through May 17th

Starting in September the Nominating Committee will begin piloting projects and ideas to help members and friends further develop their skills, talents, and gifts to provide service to the congregation, our local communities, and the world in which we live. Please contact nominating@ascboston.org by May 17 to learn how to be a part of this exciting new endeavor. All are welcome!
