ASCares Committee

Sunday, May 21st ~ 12:30 PM, Stage Right Room

This newly-revived committee's goal is to foster congregational community by coordinating opportunities for congregants to support one another in times of hardship and celebration. We warmly invite one and all to become involved! What you might do to be of service to other congregants: Can you bring a meal to someone just home from the hospital? Can you give someone a ride to a doctor's visit? Can you make a caring phone call to see how someone is doing after a loss? Can you send a card to someone who has just had surgery? Can you bring a meal to the parents of a newborn?

ASCaress is chaired by Rich Abreu. Be in touch via office@ASCBoston.org if you have interest or questions! We look forward to working together in love and service!

Alleluia!

Sunday, May 21st ~ 3:00 PM, Church of the Covenant in Boston

Coro Allegro is celebrating its 25th year! The concert offers a retrospective on Coro Allegro's musical history plus surprises, discoveries, and rejoicings! You will hear radiant Alleluia settings from composers from the Baroque to the contemporary—they'll sound gorgeous in the resonance of the Church of the Covenant! In addition to the extraordinary range of a capella singing that Coro audiences love, we'll offer highlights from performances that have put Coro on the map — from Rachmaninoff's sublime All Night Vigil to works by Poulenc, MacMillan, and Ginastera that shine a light on human rights. We'll reprise our first commission, In the Clearing; settings of Frost poems by Charles Fuchs; and offer two world premieres by Peter Eldridge and Patricia Van Ness as well as a Boston premiere by Jennifer Higdon—all in keeping with our tradition of commissioning works by people who are LGBTQ, women, and other underrepresented composers. Tickets are available online at coroallegro.org or from ASC members Hala Hazar, Steve Vorenberg, or Jim Tice.
