TODAY

Ari & Mia

Today ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary

Arlington Street Church is thrilled to welcome Ari & Mia, Boston's Americana sister act, to play for our Sunday morning worship! With fiddle, cello, banjo, guitar, and arresting vocal harmonies, their songs evoke the sounds of Appalachian cottages, rural dance floors, and urban concert halls. They combine Southern and Northeastern fiddle music and early American songbook tunes with their own innovative compositions.

Both sisters studied at Boston's New England Conservatory in its cutting-edge Contemporary Improvisation department. Their album, Unruly Heart, ranked high on the national folk radio charts for 2011. Mia's song, "Across the Water," won the 2010 John Lennon Songwriting Contest in the folk category. Their new album, Land on Shore, was just released this month! Find more at ariandmiamusic.com.

Coffee Hour and Lunch

Today ~ Immediately following worship, Parish Hall

Let's all gather downstairs for coffee, soup, sandwiches, and community! If you're visiting Arlington Street Church, or would like information about Unitarian Universalism, please visit the Welcome Table.

We welcome additional volunteers to help with food preparation and, especially, with clean-up. To volunteer, and for more information about joining our team, please stop by the kitchen today, or contact Jon Ellertson or Sharon Pressly-Fiero through the church office.

A Collage of Migration

Today ~ Noon, Parish Hall

Where did your family originate? Let's remind Congress that unless you are Native American, you are an immigrant! Come ready for your close-up next Sunday. We'll create a collage of our beautiful faces and the litany of places that our families left to come here. This is a project of UU Mass Action, in support of our work for immigration reform. Our collage will be sent to lawmakers in the fall!

The New Jim Crow ~ Workshop

Today ~ 12:30 PM, Hunnewell Chapel

The Committee for Friends and Relatives of Prisoners (CFROP) works with volunteers to help prisoners and their families stay in connection, to promote self-help, and to provide financial and emotional support resources during and after imprisonment.

Harold Adams, the director, will educate us about the main projects CFROP is working on, as well as the issues affecting prisoners and their families in the greater Boston area and around Massachusetts. We will hear about the opportunities, timeslots, and trainings for volunteers. We expect to have one or more breakout sessions, where we might practice skills for volunteering at upcoming community events in the area. You will find much to engage you, even if this is your first "New Jim Crow" event.

Are You Highly Sensitive?

Today ~ 1:00 PM, Sanctuary

Looking for some support for this wonderful way of being "wired?" We'd like to continue our support and conversation for us Highly Sensitive People (HSP). Join Michael Parise and the rest of us in the right/front corner of the church sanctuary. All highly sensitive people are welcome!

The Wednesdays, Arlington Street's Literary Salon Spring, 2013: An Evening of Tom Sawyer

Wednesday, May 29th ~ 6:00-7:30+ PM, Frothingham Library

Mark Twain is one of the most all-around satisfying writers who ever wrote; few provide as much sentence-to-sentence pleasure. Hemingway famously said that "All modern American literature comes from one book by Mark Twain called Huckleberry Finn," but he might as easily have said the same about Tom Sawyer, published eight years earlier. Although the later book deals with the far more important subject of slavery and is thus thematically richer, Tom Sawyer can lay claim to being perhaps the first truly American novel. Join Professor Alan Helms and Rev. Kim for proof of that claim, and to discuss The Adventures of Tom Sawyer! In the fall, we'll devote three weeks to Huckleberry Finn.

Sacred Eros ~ A Farewell Potluck

Wednesday, May 29th ~ 7:00 PM, Perkins Room

After four years, it's been decided that Sacred Eros has run its course (at least for now). This last meeting will therefore be an informal potluck for all who've attended in the past. Please bring some munchies or beverages, and your memories and hopes.

Sacred Eros is a discussion group that provides a safe and supportive space to explore questions about sexuality from a spiritual and ethical perspective. Anyone over 18 is welcome, and participants are expected to respect one another and keep personal matters discussed confidential.
