The Transformation Team for Racial Justice is an ongoing task force of Arlington Street Church that seeks to identify and eliminate interpersonal and institutional barriers of racism and oppression, and build a justice-seeking, multiracial, multicultural community. If you have suggestions, questions, comments, or concerns for The Team, please email transformation@ascboston.org, attend our open meetings on the third Tuesday of every month from 7 - 8:30 p.m. or speak with a team member (Sarah Cooleybeck, Margy Herley, Peter Lowber, Laura Pattison, Nancy Perna, Steve Marable, and Barbara Seidl). NEWS FROM THE SOUL OF SUNDAY

SUNDAY, JUNE 14TH, 2015

TODAY

Long & Away ~ Viol Consort

Today ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary

Long & Away is a viol consort specializing in early music. Viols, or violas da gamba, are early precursors to the modern violin family. Long & Away, founded in 2005, has performed across New England and New York. This spring, in celebration of its 10th anniversary, they released a CD of Samuel Capricornus' sacred music. The ensemble's name refers to the music of Orlando Gibbons, beloved composer of English viol consort music.

The consort performing throughout today's service features Karen Burciaga, Jane Hershey, Anne Legêne, and James Williamson.

Picnic: Welcome Summer!

Today ~ Noon, Boston Public Garden

Let's gather across the street in the Public Garden for our annual picnic with the swans! Did you bring your picnic basket to church? If not, head down to the parish hall after worship to purchase a lunch at Sandwich Board. Enter the Public Garden on Boylston Street (in front of the ice cream truck). Follow the path immediately to the right (along the fence closest to Boylston Street) and look for everyone on the grass between the fence and the pond!

If you're visiting Arlington Street Church, or would like information about Unitarian Universalism, please visit the Welcome Table. We welcome additional volunteers to help with food preparation and, especially, with clean-up. To volunteer, and for more information about joining our team, please stop by the kitchen today, or contact Jon Ellertson at office@ascboston.org.

It's Covenant Renewal Season! Have You Pledged Yet?

The outpouring of generosity to Covenant Renewal has been spectacular! Thank you to all who pledged!

Along with giving volunteer service, making an annual pledge is part of membership here at Arlington Street. Everyone is invited to fill out a pledge form (found on the back of "Inside") and place it in the offering plate. Let's give to maintain this beautiful building, to support music and religious education, to pay the minister and staff, and to manifest our vision of love, service, justice, and peace in the world!

Flower Communion Sunday

Sunday, June 21st ~ 11:00 AM, Sanctuary

Our annual Flower Communion service is coming up! This ritual was created by Rev. Norbert Čapek, who founded the Unitarian Church in Czechoslovakia. He introduced this special service on June 4, 1923. It honors the divinity within each of us through the sharing of flowers. Please bring a flower to share on Sunday, June 21st!

Arlington Street Circle of Caring

Sunday, June 21st ~ 12:30 PM, Frothingham Library

Are you battling illness, caring for someone who is ill, struggling with isolation or in the process of losing someone you love? Or have you already lost someone, and are you trying to cope with the heartbreak and anger that accompany loss and grief? If you are currently struggling, or have experienced this or any other type of life crisis and would like to share how you made it through, then please join the Caring Circle.

Maureen Peterson is an ASC member who has lost her parents and her best friend to cancer, her Aunt to Alzheimer's and her brother and close friends to AIDS. Her vision of the Circle of Caring is to create a safe space in which to share our stories, discuss what might help, and just be together in support, in healing, in peace and always in love.
