

Welcome!

TO ARLINGTON STREET CHURCH, UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST

WHETHER A LONG-TIME MEMBER, A REGULAR WORSHIPPER OR A FIRST-TIME VISITOR, WE WARMLY WELCOME YOU TO THIS MORNING'S SERVICE. The experience of worship in this congregation strives to create a community of seekers, celebrating and nurturing a broad diversity of personal spiritual journeys.

Unitarian Universalism is rooted in a rich, historic tradition that embraces the ancient foundations of Jewish and Christian teaching and the flowering of liberal religious thought in early New England. It also affirms the truths of all of humanity's sacred paths as inspirations for our spiritual growth. Through quiet prayer and meditation, beautiful music, the sharing of our joys and concerns, and the message of the pulpit, we try to create a variety of textures and perspectives to speak to many different minds and hearts.

Most significantly, since its founding in 1729, Arlington Street Church has been "gathered in love and service for justice and peace." The ultimate meaning we can give to our experience together here is the challenge we take into our hearts to go forth from this place, working to transform and heal our lives and relationships, our community, and the world!

ALLELUIA!

At Arlington Street Church, we raise a hand and circle two fingers above our heads to signal joyous affirmation.

CONGREGATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The Prudential Committee is the elected governing board of ASC. The members are: Tori Bell, Marilyn Castriotta, Doug Fiero, Danny Fournier, Carmen Griggs, Elizabeth Lindholm (Co-Chair), Mickey Randazza, Jenn Shaw, and Mark Watanabe. Officers of the Corporation are Herbert Gleason (moderator), Mary Ann Hardenbergh (vice-moderator), Karl Paulnack (Council Chair), D. Richard Pooler (treasurer), and Carol Smith (clerk).

COMMUNITY CANDLES OF SORROW AND JOY

Michael Orzech

You are invited to share your sorrows and joys with the congregation by filling out a Candle Card in the back pew on the right-hand side of the sanctuary. Candle Cards are collected until the beginning of the first hymn. After the service, Candle Cards are posted downstairs during coffee hour. You may also submit a candle by Saturday night at the church website, ASCBoston.org, and clicking on "Worship."

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.

El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.

NEWS FROM THE SOUL OF SUNDAY

SUNDAY, JUNE 28TH, 2009

All Are Welcome...

WE ARE GLAD YOU HAVE JOINED US THIS MORNING FOR WORSHIP!
THE FIRST PRINCIPLE OF OUR UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FAITH
AFFIRMS THE INHERENT WORTH AND DIGNITY OF EVERY PERSON.
WE CELEBRATE UNITY IN DIVERSITY.

This morning, we invite you to:

1. Fill in the Welcome Card found on the inside flap of this order of service and place it in the collection plate;
2. Join us for coffee hour in the Parish Hall;
3. Take a moment to read through Inside ASC for upcoming events here at the church;
4. Introduce yourself to the service leaders, and;
5. Please come back again soon!

Today's Speaker

SARAH C. RICHARDS “The power of singing is often overlooked, but we are nurturing our souls, our relationships and our communities when we are enthusiastic shower soloists, lullaby stylists or just hum along with hymns in church. This service is a celebration of singing as spiritual practice. I’ll talk about the power and glory of singing, we’ll sing some favorite hymns, and we’ll listen to soprano Stephanie McGuire for inspiration.”

Hymns: Hymn #346 “Come, Sing a Song with Me”; Hymn #170, “We Are a Gentle, Angry People”; #108 “My Life Flows on in Endless Song.”

Summer Worship Highlights

Building Renovations

Over the course of the summer months there will be a number of building improvements made that will disrupt and displace some activities in the building.

Re-painting of the Perkins Room and Program Office has already begun and will continue into July. This area is not available for the moment for meetings. Beginning mid-July, the Hunnewell Chapel will be closed for an extended period of time in order to de-lead the chapel, nursery and entryway from Boylston Street. Once those areas are de-leaded, they will be repainted as well. The renovations to the Perkins Room Program Office and chapel areas are funded through a grant from the Cedar Tree Foundation and funds restricted to improvement of the Hunnewell Chapel. We will provide additional information as to when work will be done in specific areas as the time approaches. We are working to minimize disruptions to programming and access to building spaces as much as possible.

If you have specific concerns about meeting spaces, etc., please contact the church office.

Please Clear Committee Mailboxes by June 30th

The content of all committee mailboxes outside the Nursery will be removed after June 30th.

Please remove any materials that cannot be disposed of.

Summer Notes

“The Meaning of July Fourth for the Negro”: Reading Frederick Douglass in the Era of Barack Obama

Saturday, July 4th, 11:00 AM, Harriet Tubman Park, Intersection of Columbus Avenue & Warren Street, Boston

In his fiery July 5th, 1852 speech, the great abolitionist and orator, Frederick Douglass, took exception to being asked to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence... and on March 18th, 2008 Barack Obama challenged all Americans while delivering his “race” speech, “I have never been so naïve as to believe that we can get beyond our racial division in a single election cycle. Race is an issue this nation cannot afford to ignore right now. To work for ‘a more perfect union’ we need to start to understand complexities that we’ve never really worked through. [This] requires a reminder of how we arrived at this point.”

The Beacon Hill Scholars invite you to come and hear the words of Frederick Douglass in this community reading of his 1852 speech.

Arlington Street Church's Summer Calendar

During summer, life at Arlington Street Church slows down and Inside Arlington Street Church is published in this leaner format. Until Homecoming Sunday (Sunday, September 13th), the best way to stay up to date is to visit our website. At the site, www.ASCBoston.org, there is an always-up-to-date calendar maintained by our facilities manager that lists all activities in the building.

Brad Nobel, church Sexton is on vacation this Sunday and next.

Woody O’Kane will be filling in as Sexton these two Sundays.

Thanks, Woody!

Homecoming Sunday: September 13th

Our Senior Minister, Reverend Kim K. Crawford Harvie, and our choir are on vacation and will return for Homecoming Sunday, September 13th. Please bring a little water from your summer travels for our water communion celebration!
