

WHETHER A LONG-TIME MEMBER, A REGULAR WORSHIPPER OR A FIRST-TIME VISITOR, WE WARMLY WELCOME YOU TO THIS MORNING'S SERVICE.

The experience of worship in this congregation strives to create a community of seekers, celebrating and nurturing a broad diversity of personal spiritual journeys. Unitarian Universalism is rooted in a rich, historic tradition that embraces the ancient foundations of Jewish and Christian teaching and the flowering of liberal religious thought in early New England. It also affirms the truths of all of humanity's sacred paths as inspirations for our spiritual growth. Through quiet prayer and meditation, beautiful music, the sharing of our joys and concerns, and the message of the pulpit, we try to create a variety of textures and perspectives to speak to many different minds and hearts. Most significantly, since its founding in 1729, Arlington Street Church has been "gathered in love and service for justice and peace." The ultimate meaning we can give to our experience together here is the challenge we take into our hearts to go forth from this place, working to transform and heal our lives and relationships, our community, and the world!

This is the first of the six sources of Unitarian Universalism from which our living tradition draws. To read all six sources, as well as the seven principles of our free faith, please see the Our Faith brochure in the pew rack.

Spirit Of Life (Hymn 123)

*Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.*

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

*Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.*

*El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.*

Today's Speaker

LOIS HARTSOUGH started coming to Arlington Street Church in Sept. 2001, where she was introduced to Unitarian Universalism. Lois has been a spiritual seeker since her teens, when she joined an evangelical church because it provided a place to belong to a community. Professionally, Lois has worked in a variety of roles as a nurse and social worker in health care. She feels at home at Arlington Street Church, because throughout her life, she has been in trouble for asking too many questions.

Comming Up – July 11th

“The Crack Where the Light Gets In” Barb Seidl

BARB SEIDL, a long standing member of Arlington Street Church, is excited to be returning for her third summer in the pulpit. She will be speaking on “The Crack Where the Light Comes In” - what our failings and foibles have to tell us about who we are and what we value. She is delighted to announce that she will be joined by hand percussionist and song leader Matt Meyer who has performed for hundreds of services in Unitarian Universalist (UU) congregations across the country. Barbara is a second generation UU who comes to Arlington Street Church by way of Prairie Unitarian Society in Madison, Wisconsin. She can be found most Sundays singing her heart out in Arlington Street Church Choir.
