ANTHEM

All Hayle to the Days ... text: Thomas D'Urfey (1653-1723), & others music: Traditional English Carol, arr. Elizabeth Norton (b. 1959)

All hayle to the days That merite more praise Then all the rest of the year; And welcome the nights, That double delights As well for the far as the near: Good fortune attend Each merry man's friend That doth but the best that he may, Forgetting old wrongs With Carrols and Songs To drive the cold winter away.	Thus none will allow Of solitude now, But merrily greets the time, To make it appeare Of all the whole yeare That this is accounted the Prime, December is seene Apparel'd in greene And January, fresh as May, Comes dancing along With a cup or a Song To drive the cold winter away.

This time of the yeare Is spent in good cheare, Kind neighbours together to meet To sit by the fire, With friendly desire Each other in love to greet: Old grudges forgot Are put in a pot, All sorrows aside they lay; The old and the young Doth carrol this Song, To drive the cold winter away.	When Christmas tide Comes in like a Bride, With Holly and Ivy clad, Twelve dayes in the yeare Much mirth and good cheare In every household is had: The Countrey guise Is then to devise Some gambols of Christmas play; Whereas the yong men do Best that they can to Drive the cold winter away.
