Today in Family Ministry

For today's intergenerational worship, children and youth are invited to sit with their families or join Erica in the balcony to enjoy the service with sermon bingo, coloring, and some of our favorite stuffed animal friends. Kids will head up to the balcony as we sing The Lone, Wild Bird and return during our closing hymn, For All the Saints.

Allie and Lena are available in the nursery to care for babies and small children. To find the nursery, go through the leather door to the right of the pulpit and cross through the chapel. The nursery is on your left before the stairs.

June Share the Plate: Summer Camp

Each summer, our own Rev. George Whitehouse, Minister at Large, works with Hawthorne Youth and Community Center and Healthy Boston to get kids and youth off the city streets and into the woods. Our gifts today will be directed to support their life-changing work. Thank you for your generosity!

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.

This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.

El amor es el espíritu

de nuestra congregación

Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.

Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:

Convivir en paz,

Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,

Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.

SILENT REFLECTION, MEDITATION, AND PRAYER

ANTHEM

The Pond text: Henry David Thoreau (1817 - 1862)
music: Dominick Argento (b. 1927)

Nothing so fair, so pure lies on the surface of the earth.
It is a clear and deep green well, half a mile long,
A perennial spring in the midst of pine and oak woods.

It is earth's eye;
looking into which the beholder measures the depth
of his own nature;

it is a mirror which no stone can crack,
whose quicksilver will never wear off;
a mirror which retains no breath that is breathed on it,
but sends its own to float as clouds high above its surface,
and be reflected on its bosom still.

There are few traces of man's hand to be seen.

The water laves the shore as it did a thousand years ago.

The water is of such crystalline purity that the body of the bather appears of an alabaster whiteness,
which, as the limbs are magnified and distorted,
produces a monstrous effect, making fit studies for Michelangelo.
So pure, so fair.

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 289 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston. Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community. Half of the offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to 617-300-0509 or scan the QR code. Thank you for your stewardship and support!

You are invited to stand as you are willing and able.*

OFFERTORY

Breathe Mary Holladay Lamar & Stephanie Kay Bentley
recorded by: Alexi Murdoch (b. 1973)

Mark David Buckles, guitar and vocals

Julie Gregorio, vocals

In the quiet of the shadow
In the corner of a room
Darkness moves upon you
Like a cloud across the moon
You're a-wearing all the silence
Of a constant that will turn
Like the windmill left deserted
Or the sun forever burn

Chorus

So don't forget to breathe

Don't forget to breathe

Your whole life is here

No eleventh hour reprieve

So don't forget to breathe

Keep your head above water

But don't forget to breathe

And all the suffering that you've witnessed

And the handprints on the wall

They remind you how it's endless

How endlessly you fall

And the answer that you're seeking

For the question that you found

Drives you further to confusion

As you lose your sense of ground

Chorus

Don't forget to breathe

Don't forget to breathe

You know you are here

But you find you want to leave

So don't forget to breathe

Just breathe

May the road rise to meet you.

May the wind be always at your back.
