Welcome to Summer Services

You are invited to stand as you are willing and able.*

PRELUDE

Intermezzo, Op. 118, No. 2 Johannes Brahms (1833 - 1897)
Daniel Rosensweig, piano

WELCOME, CHALICE LIGHTING, AND GREETINGS

The flaming chalice is the symbol of our free faith.

HYMN 38

Morning Has Broken

1 Morning has broken like the first morning, blackbird has spoken like the first bird. Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning! Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

2 Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven, like the first dewfall on the first grass. Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden, sprung in completeness where God's feet pass.

3 Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning born of the one light Eden saw play! Praise with elation, praise every morning, God's recreation of the new day!

SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: GOING INWARD

COMMUNITY CANDLES OF SORROW & JOY

You are invited to share your sorrows and joys with the congregation by filling out a Candle Card in the back pew on the right-hand side of the sanctuary. Candle Cards are collected until the beginning of the first hymn. After the service, Candle Cards are posted downstairs during coffee hour. You may also submit a candle by Saturday night at the church website, ASCBoston.org, by clicking on "Worship."

AFFIRMATION AND COVENANT

*Love is the spirit
of this congregation,
And service is our gift.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To speak our truths in love,
And to help one another.*

*El amor es el espíritu
de nuestra congregación
Y el servicio es nuestro regalo.
Esto es a lo que nos comprometemos:
Convivir en paz,
Hablar nuestras verdades con amor,
Y ayudarnos los unos a los otros.*

OUR SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

During the offertory, you are invited to open your heart and engage in the spiritual practice of generosity. For 288 years, the abundant support of our community has allowed Arlington Street Church to remain a beacon for liberal religious values in downtown Boston. Your gifts in the Sunday plate sustain both the church and the larger community – half of the offering is shared with a partner in our mission of love, service, justice, and peace. As a convenient option, you may text the word GIVE to 617-300-0509 or scan the QR code. Thank you for your stewardship and support!

TODAY'S SPEAKER

Liz Weber is a longtime Arlington Street member and a soon-to-be ordained Unitarian Universalist minister. Until recently, she was the Ministerial Intern at the UU Church of Reading. She's excited to return to the ASC pulpit! Liz is also a nationally certified American Sign Language interpreter.

SPEAKING ON SUNDAY, JULY 8TH

Radical Hope Rev. Fred Small

Any contemplation of global climate change, its frightening consequences, and the tardiness and timidity of nations in response is necessarily a meditation on hope. When the earth and its peoples are in such distress, where do we find hope? Rev. Fred Small preaches.

A Unitarian Universalist pastor, singer-songwriter, and former environmental lawyer, Rev. Fred Small is Minister for Climate Justice at Arlington Street Church. Cited by Bill McKibben as "one of the key figures in the religious environmental surge," Fred left parish ministry in 2015 to devote his energies to climate advocacy.

SUMMER WORSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

SUMMERTIME AT ARLINGTON STREET

The program staff and the Arlington Street Choir are away for the summer, but will be back for worship on September 9th. Today and every Sunday through Labor Day, we are grateful to our musicians, our preachers, the volunteer team, and Ali Jablonski, our Summer Student Minister, for this beautiful worship service!

Next to the Hunnewell Chapel, there is a nursery for restless babies and their caregivers. This space offers a rocking chair, changing table with supplies, and a live audio feed of the service.

Should you need a minister over the summer, please call the church office at 617-536-7050. The admin staff is always here for you; Jeffrey, and Brad are glad to help! Happy summer, one and all!

During summer the best way to stay informed on all of the church's activities is to visit our website, ASCBoston.org and click on "Calendar." Jeff Bouchard, our congregational administrator/facilities manager, keeps it current.

COFFEE HOUR

Immediately following the service in the Parish Hall

Let's all gather downstairs for beverages, light lunch, & community!

ASC CARES TABLE ON HIATUS

For the past year, the Arlington St. Cares Committee—coordinated by Helen Kobek—has held a space in the parish hall directly after Sunday service for members of the community to sign cards for those who have shared candles of sorrow and joy. The table will be on hiatus during summer worship, between July 1st and September 2nd. We will return on September 9th. We are also looking for volunteers to hold the space once a month—an ideal commitment for someone who is only able to be at ASC on Sunday mornings! If you are interested in helping during the 2018-2019 church year, please contact the table coordinator Anna Clutterbuck-Cook at Office@ASCBoston.org.

ARLINGTON STREET’S LITERARY SALON, THE WEDNESDAYS: OVID

Wednesdays, September 19th, October 3rd, and 17th ~ 6:00 - 8:00 PM
The Vendome, 160 Commonwealth Ave.

Ovid’s “Metamorphoses” is one of the most influential works in Western culture, having inspired Dante, Boccaccio, Chaucer, and Shakespeare among countless others. In fact, “Metamorphoses” was Shakespeare’s favorite book (he read it in Latin), and it’s easy to see why. The stories it contains are endlessly fascinating: Zeus transformed into a shower of gold to ravish Danae, Tiresias turned into a woman and then back into a man, Orpheus torn to shreds by furious Maenads. It runs from the creation of the world to the death of Julius Caesar, containing over 250 narratives in 15 books. Join Rev Kim and Professor Alan for three sessions and discover why this is one of the most beloved works in all of world literature. We’ll be reading the Rolfe Humphries translation published by Indiana University Press. Amazon has many new copies from $5.00, & you can find used copies even cheaper. All are welcome!
